

Position Profile: 2259

Instrumentation Engineer (Contract)

Greater New Orleans Area

Prepared By: ECIG

This position profile has been compiled by ECIG to identify and hire for the specified role. The following is provided for your personal information and should be kept confidential.

Instrumentation Engineer (Contract) [2259]

ECI has identified an immediate need for an Instrumentation Engineer to work onsite at our client's neoprene production unit in the Greater New Orleans area for contract assignment for a minimum six (6) month duration from September 2022 and may be extended dependent on the project requirements to support a plant upgrade project related to environmental compliance.

YOUR ROLE WITH THE COMPANY:

As a Contract Instrumentation Engineer to our client your primary responsibilities will include:

- This position reports to the client's Project Manager.
- Responsible for providing basic instrumentation engineering support for the facility upgrade project.
- Engineering Experience on New Chemical Plant Design
- Preparation of Instrument specifications
- Preparation of Instrument System Design, Instrument Flow Diagram, Air Supply, Analyzer, Inst Loop Diagram, System Diagram, DCS I/O list etc.
- Maintains technical knowledge of process instrumentation equipment (pressure, flow, temperature, control valves, etc.)

BACKGROUND PROFILE:

- BS in Electrical Engineering required
- Minimum of five (5) to fifteen (15) years of instrumentation engineering experience.
- Knowledge of Local and National Codes, and Regulation.
- Engineering Experience on New Chemical Plant Design
- Software skill on Auto CAD, MS Excel/Word as minimum

COMPENSATION:

- ✓ Competitive Based on Experience

ECI GROUP

FOR MORE INFORMATION CONTACT:

Kathryn "Kate" Wilhelm, PE
Director of Global Recruitment
985 264 6709
kwilhelm@ecigrouponline.com